

SBCPA Psychologists Offering Reduced-Fee Trauma & Grief Counseling (Listed alphabetically)

 A detailed profile for each doctor available at www.sbcpa.org/find-a-psychologist **

Hallie D'Agruma, Ph.D.

I would like to offer my services to the community in this time of need. I have experience working with trauma and grief and the adolescent population. Full or reduced fee.

1531 Chapala St, Bldg 2 p: 413-551-9611 e:drhdagruma@dagruma.com w: Dagruma.com

Megan Donahue, Ph.D.

Offering a free initial consultation to for children, teens, or young adults impacted by this tragedy. There would be no fee for initial session and cost of subsequent meetings would be established in consultation with the individual and family. My areas of speciality include trauma, anxiety/panic, & developmentally attuned therapy.

2060 Alameda Padre Serra, Ste 202 p: 805-886-8208 e: info@drmegandonahue.com

Betsy Bates Freed, Psy.D.

Offering short-term grief counseling and referrals with fees based on ability to pay (from full fee to pro bono).

2400 Bath Street, Suite 202 p: (805) 979-3440

Cécile Lyons, Ph.D.

There would be no fee for initial session and cost of subsequent meetings would be established in consultation with the individual and family. (Continuing at no cost will be among the possibilities considered.)

21 East Carrillo, Suite 120 p: 805-456-2858 e: drlyons@cecilelyonsphd.com

Dr. Sharon Rapp, Ph.D.

Reduced fee $100 per grief/ trauma session. Trauma and grief speciality. Normal fee $165.00.

p: 805 683-6758

Hosford Clinic at UCSB, Clinic Director: Heidi Zetzer, Ph.D.

If you are concerned about the well-being of a friend, family, or community member or are looking for help understanding and responding to feelings of grief and loss, we are here to offer hope, help, and healing. The Hosford Clinic provides individual, couple, and family therapy for people of all ages affected by the recent tragedies in our community. Counseling and psychotherapy services are offered on a sliding scale.

1151 Education Building, UCSB p:805-893-8064 w: <http://education.ucsb.edu/hosford>.